OBJECT LESSON OR KIDS SERMON

ITEMS NEEDED:

A Happy Meal

Note: Any kid-portioned meal can be substituted for a Happy Meal, along with the comparable adult meals.

McDonalds is a great place to visit when you're hungry. If you're craving a big burger, there's the classic Big Mac, with two all-beef patties, special sauce, lettuce, cheese, onions on a sesame seed bun. If you need something bigger, there's the Quarter Pounder, and if you need bigger still, there's the Double Quarter Pounder. Each of these mighty burgers comes with fries, and if you're really, really hungry, you can make that regular fry a large.

Of course only the adults get to eat those giant meals with the super size fries. Kids get Happy Meals instead. Sure they come with a toy, but what else is inside? A small burger. A very small fry. And some apples.

Kids meals are smaller because kids are smaller. Younger kids can't even finish this little amount of food. But the bigger you get, the more food you'll be able to eat, and the bigger the meal you'll get to order.

God wants us to be faithful with the little things he gives to us. Like the Happy Meal, God wants to see we can handle the small things before he trusts us with bigger things.

God wants to see us doing little things to help others and share his love. Let's be faithful with those little moments so God will trust us with more.
