Friendship bracelets

Do any of you have bracelets like these at home? Sometimes friends make friendship bracelets as a way of sharing their friendship. That little bit of woven thread around your wrist reminds you that you have someone you can count on. It's a fun way to share love between the best of friends.

Today's message is a simple one: Jesus wants to be your friend. More than that, he wants to be your Savior. Jesus died for our sins so he could forgive them and we could have a relationship with him. The Gospels are Jesus' invitation to all of us: come and be my friend! He's a true friend who will never leave you and will bless you more than you can imagine.

Jesus called us friends, and he wants us to call him friend. Won't you accept Jesus' invitation today?
